PLAN

Once it was a merchant settlement, nowadays the tourist city is called a Pearl of the Drawsko Lake District. What attracts people to Czaplinek is not only the lake of Drawsko, but also the atmosphere of the city and the possibilities for opening themselves for interesting history. The city tempts with its beaches which encourage to sunbathe, clean water which is ideal for practicing water sports, as well as undisturbed peace — sometimes broken by tuneful warbling of birds. Therefore, it is worth staying here for a bit longer. .

People who visit Czaplinek have a wide range of attractions at their disposal and it is easy to choose something for oneself. There is an offer for active tourists and also for those who expect relaxation or desire peace and quiet.

Along with the growing popularity of water sports, in Czaplinek you can find rental shops offering water sports equipment as for instance sailing boats, kayaks, pedalos, or SUP paddling boards. Those who are attraction-thirsty can go waterskiing or try windsurfing in care of professional instructors, and Drawsko Lake is excellent for the sports purposes.

> Within the unique area there is one of the most beautiful Canoe Water trails along the Drawa river named after Cardinal Karol Wojtyła, who went canoeing here several times. Clean waters and diverse character of river sections are what makes it attractive.

Nature offers excellent terrains for hiking and cycling tourism. Landscape assets should be appreciated by enthusiasts of active recreation who like spending their time far from noise. The commune of Czaplinek is especially predisposed for cycling tourism. Biking fans have at their disposal Cycling routes of diverse level of difficulty. All the routes run through the most attractive places in the commune of Czaplinek. It is also possible to hire bikes here.

Charming nooks of Czaplinek encourage for walking along hiking routes, those for Nordic walking, as well as numerous nature trails. At the nearby former military airfield in Broczyna the most beautiful Festival of the World 'Pol'and'Rock Festival' has been held since 2022. There is also a track for cars and other off-road vehicles, as well as a shooting range. Access roads are ideal places for rollerbladers. Not far from Czaplinek, at the Niwka active recreation area it is possible to check one's motorcycle and guad driving skills.

Landscapes of our region can also be admired from the height of a horse back, while going along marked horse. riding routes. Horse-riding centres offer not only horse-riding lessons but also field trips with an instructor.

For those who expect relaxation there are sunbathing and swimming attractions by over 40 charming situated lakes. Within the terrain of the commune there are six guarded beaches functioning.

For many tourists, one of the basic factors for choosing a holiday destination is a certainty of finding suitable accommodation at the spot. In terms of that, you will be surely satisfied, as Czaplinek offers a wide range of choice of accommodation facilities – from price-attractive private accommodation to high-quality lodging houses and recreation centres.

What is also important during tourist trips is the Catering base. Also at that point our commune is prepared perfectly for serving visitors at the highest level of quality. There are restaurants, pizzerias, and a wide range of places offering tasty food. Every guest who visits Czaplinek cannot leave the city without tasting the Drahim honey or the fish called vendace.

No matter where you come from, enchanted with the atmosphere of our Czaplinek land, its people or scenic landscape, you will always feel at home here. It is worth experiencing the feeling.

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

Parish Church of the Holy Trinity – the church is the oldest brick building in Czaplinek, erected probably at the end of the 14th or the beginning of the 15th century. Originally, it had a tower, which was not reconstructed when the church was restored after the great fire in 1725. Inside there is a unique Baroque canopy altar. The church is situated in Moniuszki street, on a hill, where most probably there had been a wooden Templars' castle. Next to the church there is a wooden sawbuck-shaped belfry, which has bells from 1730, produced by bell-founders from Kołobrzeg.

Church of the Exaltation of the Holy (ross - the church was constructed within the period of 1829-1832 according to the design by Carl Friedrich Schinkel. It was built on a cross layout, in a style including neo-Romanesque and Classical features. It takes the whole eastern side of the central market square. Inside there is a neo-Gothic organ from 1862, wall polychromes from the period of 1954-1956. a ceramic mosaic from 1976, as well as wooden sculptures produced by Edward Szatkowski, a sculptor from Czaplinek, which decorate the side altar arranged on the occasion of the 700th anniversary of Czaplinek, which was celebrated in 1986.

Museum (hamber – the chamber was open in 1997. Among the huge number of exhibits collected here, the majority are household utensils, as for instance old charcoal irons, guerns for grinding corn by hand, as well as strange implements for sometimes unknown nowadays purposes. In the hall of the chamber there are even several old farming machines. History enthusiasts will get interested with old maps and a collection of pre-war chronicles. A major part of the exhibits are objects donated by local inhab-

Monument of Pope – the monument was created by Robert Sobociński, a sculptor from Poznań. It was founded with the means donated during collections and erected in 2005 directly by the waters of Drawsko lake, to commemorate priest Karol Wojtyła's stay in Czaplinek, the future Pope, who in 1955, together with a group of youth, took part in a canoeing rally along the Drava river, which started on Drawsko lake.

Sławogród – is a modern reconstruction of a Medieval stronghold. Fair reconstructions of historic buildings or fortifications impress imagination just like a gate of time. Having entered the gate, it is possible to move into the world of ancestors, where an adventure with the past > Sławogród is not just an ordinary heritage park... The whole settlement is vibrant with life. Close to the palisade there is a livestock corral, by the cottage herbs are grown, which are used by the housewife for preparing decoctions and medicaments. The settlement is guarded by brave warriors, who resist attacks of barbarian neighbours and unfamiliar tribes. Women weave beautiful textiles with the use of looms, and there is a flurry of sparks raised by the blacksmith in his workshop! It is here where one can be trained to become a warrior. The settlement is located in the northern part of the city, by the bifurcation of the roads no 163 and 171.

Ruins of Drahim castle in Stare Drawsko - these are relics of a fortified castle constructed within the period of 1360 1366 by the Johanniter Order, which was a seat of Drahim starosts within the period of 1407 – 1668. The castle was situated at a narrow pass between the lakes of Drawsko and Żerdno, at the spot of a former ruined early-Medieval Slavic settlement. At present at the castle yard there are several buildings imitating the old layout. The castle has been given the status of a museum. Here one can see for instance weapons, armours, torture implements, and others. Shows of nightly tournament duels are also organized here. For more details: www.drahim.pl, Phone no: +48 502 126 156

Palace in Siemczyno – the palace was erected in 1722 by Henning Berndt von Goltz in Baroque style, together with a beautiful stylish park from the epoch, as well as a palace grange.

> Interiors were arranged in the Baroque convention. In 1796 the palace was extended. Throughout almost three hundred years of its history the palace changed its owners several times, and after World War II it was nationalized. Within the period of 1950-1986 there was a primary school functioning here. Since 1999 it has been a private property. At present in the palace there are: the unique in the whole province Interactive Museum of Baroque and the Uniwersalium of Diverse Handicraft.

Pottery smithy in Siemczyno – the smithy is situated in the locality of Siemczyno, within the area of the palace-and-grange complex, next to the fire station. In the smithy there are group an individual ceramic workshops organized. Each participant can learn the techniques of manual modelling, as well as using a potter's wheel. Pottery burning plein-air events are also organized here. For more details: Phone no: +48 605 578 600, e-mail: ceramikka@ gmail.com, www.ceramikka.blogspot.com

'Zapiecek' in Żelisławie – Żelisławie is a small village located several kilometres from Czaplinek. Here there is the seat of the Żelisławie Association called 'Zapiecek,' which for several years has been implementing a project for promoting traditional professions, as for instance, pottery, weaving, or baking traditional 'szczodraks.' During the tourist season there are educational events organized, when participants can produce a pot ith their own hands, weave a rug, or bake 'szczodraks' (traditional breadrolls with cabbage) Phone no: +48 888 139 583

Tempelburg' Rock – the rock is located about 5 kilometres from Czaplinek, not far from the road running from Czaplinek to Stare Kaleńsko, near a small village of Cichorzecze. The granite relic of the grand glacial period from over a dozen thousand years ago has a circumference of 19.5 metres and a height of 3.5 metres. For many years the rock had the function of a boundary stone, as there once was the border of the Drahim Starostwo. The name of 'Tempelburg' was given to the rock after World War II.

> Water-mill in Gleboczek – the mill is the only water-mill located in the surroundings of Czaplinek. Such mills still existed in several places a hundred years ago and made it possible to local inhabitants to run their day-to-day life. In fact, the water-mill consists of a whole mill complex: the mill of a timber framing construction, a granary, and utility buildings constructed in 1898, when the bank of the Drawa river was reconstructed to make a properly high damming.

ropes course – visitors have at their disposal three trails of diverse level of difficulty and height, from one to eleven metres. Each of the trails is a system of decks on various heights and rope obstacles installed on trees. There are a lot of interesting attractions waiting for the daring, as for instance Burmese rope bridges, vicious logs, meandering pales, artificial climbing walls, zip-line slides, and > many others. In the ropes course everybody can have fun, from children over two, through teenagers, to adults. The system of the ropes course has been designed and arranged in such way that everybody, no matter how physically fit he or she is, is able to cover the whole trail, enjoying the extraordinary adventure.

Drawsko Lake – the reservoir is the best-known lake of the Drawsko Lake District, when seen from above, it looks like a star thrown on a pillow of dark velvet. And it is considered a star. It has charm, style, and potentials. Formally, its depth is 83 metres. Sailing round all of its fifteen bays can take even a week. On the way it is possible to moor at one of its twelve islands, as for instance the Bielawa island, which is the fifth largest inland island in Poland. The lake can enchant not only enthusiasts of water sports, also those who do not sail notice its beauty: the windless calm, billowed waves, sunrises and sunsets, water reflections of sunbeams, white sails, winter ice, feeding birds, or hunting sea eagles. At the south-western bank of Drawsko Lake, in Drahimska street there is a sandy guarded beach.

Ranczo Aldaki Sikory – is an educational farmstead, where it is possible to see alpacas and black-nosed Walliser sheep, recognized as the sweetest sheep in the world. Touching alpacas and close contact with these animals cause releasing endorphins, which are hormones of happiness. The company of the animals makes people calm, relaxed, it tranquillizes and improves the mood. They present especially positive approach to children. The farmstead offers: strolling with alpacas, special events, photo shoots, as well as wool products. Every visit demands prior booking.

Sculptor's trail - Sometimes it happens that beauty emerges from nature plaited with sensitivity and human talent. It is the case of the Czaplinek works by Edward Szatkowski, the sculptor. The most of his works can be seen in the Central Market Square. In front > conjured up of oak wood, a symbol of early medieval society of the area, and in front of him the Meditative Wanderer took a seat on a wooden bench to admire the charming 19th-century tenement houses. At the other side of the fountain there is another sculptured bench with a motif of impressive fish, and just nearby there is Knight Dobrogost and a fairy tale creature from lake depths. At the Promenade there are other sculptures, and under the huge linden tree in the historic Studzi-

Czaplinek in Słoneczna street the ceremonial launch of the 19th-century clock took place. After 70 years, the devastated clockwork mechanism was given its second life and at present it shows time again, due to renovation carried out by enthusiasts of Czaplinek. The clock can be visited free of charge with a guide in the summer season on Saturdays and Sundays. Phone no:
